MAIN ENTRANCE to Garden Spot High School.

It is the purpose of the 1966 SPARTANUS to reveal the mood of Garden Spot through fall, winter, and spring. Each season brought with it a new atmosphere for us to sustain.

Chromatic scenes of autumn brought with them the opening of classes, soccer and hockey games, new organizations, and the school musical.

As winter rejoined us, we anticipated the coming Christmas holidays. Snow-clad limbs denoted the excitement of basketball games and wrestling matches. Pep rallies, the splendor of the annual Christmas dance, rifle matches and chorus programs were also part of our winter of '66.

As spring entered, budding flowers depicted the outside activities of baseball, track, and tennis. May Day festivities and the prom were the highlights of our spring at Garden Spot. Graduation was looked upon by all with mixed emotions.

The SPARTANUS will help us, the student of Garden Spot, to recall our experiences, both enjoyable and educational, through the seasons of that wonderful year - 1966.

As a harbinger of the changing seasons, the '66 Spartanus depicts the mood of Garden Spot through .

Let us now recall those changes as we again look at the climatic memories through FALL . . . WINTER . . . SPRING

Summer has wasted away and with it goes the carefree life of the Garden Spot students. Back again is the school routine, though, as fall appears with its changes, both in nature and in student activities. Just as the trees shed their old leaves to provide room for the fresh, green foliage, the students must prepare to launch into another promising year.

As the students enter the doors, there is a medley of resentment, excitement, and expectation in the air. There are acquaintances to be made, friendships to be renewed, and work to be done. Both students and teachers must familiarize themselves with the school walls and the daily schedule.

But as time slips by, so does the colorful, fall season. Outside, the trees have lost their leaves, and the air is crisp. Already, the first day of school is part of the past and fall at Garden Spot has vanished.

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

Mr. Menno H. Eby, Treasurer; Mr. Richard C. Bucher, Secretary; Mr. Ivan S. Witmer, President; and Mr. Roy Hoober, Vice-President pose for an informal shot of the school board officers.

SCHOOL BOARD

Probably few students are aware of the vital role which the school board plays in the operation of our school.

The board consists of representatives from townships and two boroughs. These men are C. Earl Deibler, Robert M. Homan, Jr., Monroe H. Good, Howard Spotts, and Arthur G. Stubbs elected from Brecknock Township; Miles K. Gunzenhauser, Harvey H. Overly, Paul Brubacher, Charles R. Thomas, and Paul McCoy delegated from Caenarvon Township; Eugene Burkholder, Parke Dunlap, Paul Sweigart, John W. Willwerth, and Jacob Wise representing Earl Township; Ray C. Boley, Menno H. Eby, C. Theodore Sheaffer, and Ivan S. Witmer, elected from East Earl Township; Allan R. Hunsicker, V. Lester Schreiber, Roy W. Hoober, Harry E. Maclay and Fr. Louis E. Williams representing New Holland Borough; Richard C. Bucher, C. Stanley, Floyd A. Parmer, Michael H. Wenger, and Roy H. Zell delegated from Terre Hill Borough.

These representatives are elected every other year in November for a six year term, taking office in December. This means that not more than two new men are elected at one time.

The duties of this board of men are to establish all school policies and the responsibility of the maintenance and operation of this school. To do this efficiently, three committees are set within the board.

The Education and Finance Committee is responsible for securing all funds necessary to promote better education and to carry out all operations in the school.

The school building is maintained structurally by the Building and Maintenance Committee.

As the name would imply, the Transportation Committee regulates the passage of students to and from school. They also map the bus routes and stops.

Together these committees work to produce an efficient school system that will enable the students to gain and to use knowledge.

Mr. Robert P. Simon
SUPERVISING PRINCIPAL

Man must educate himself from infancy until his later years. Life is dynamic. Man must be prepared to readjust to it. At one time a man's formal education was terminated when he learned to read and write. With the changes that have been made, this will not suffice.

The attitude that a man has in his heart towards the value of education will have a definite effect upon his success. An educated man is important to our modern society. The amount of education will determine the progress he will make in the improvement of his status. When his education is terminated early, he is limited in future opportunities. No man should limit himself in his early years by not taking advantage of the educational opportunities that are available today.

Today, you are training yourself for tomorrow. Do not make the mistake of failing to do your best today. Every fact that you learn and every skill that you develop will open another door for you in the future.

Change seems to be the order of the day in our modern world. As students you have witnessed many changes in the school in the relatively short time you have attended. Additional courses and curricula are now available, different methods of teaching have been used, revised and new materials for courses have been introduced, and the activity program has been expanded. Even now, as a new building is nearing completion, other changes are in the offering as school district reorganization reduced six districts to one.

Both in school and in later life you will be subjected to change and will be a part of it. Your open-mindedness and reaction to it will do much to determine the future. Change in itself is not good. The real tests are the types of planning, methods and goals used for the change effected. If these meet your ideals, then work for that change both at Garden Spot and in the future.

Mr. Donald A. Sheaffer
PRINCIPAL

GUIDANCE COUNSELORS

Primarily the task of guidance is assisting the individual pupil in making satisfactory social, personal, and academic adjustment today so that they can be stimulated and prepared to function as effective citizens tomorrow. To implement these goals a variety of means are utilized.

Orientation activities in the seventh grade assist boys and girls in becoming acclimated to their new surroundings and academic schedule. Interpretations of standardized tests administered in grades seven and eight aid students in the choice of curriculum at the close of the eighth year. Achievement testing and interpretation in the ninth grade serves to further help the individual pupil along the road to satisfactory achievement and worthwhile. In addition to these activities, individual conferences, group conferences, and a variety of other guidance oriented programs are offered throughout the junior high school years.

Mr. John Greer, Junior High

Miss Ruth Witman, Senior High

Counseling at the senior high school level is concentrated mainly in the area of educational guidance.

Students at this level must consider their goals in terms of personal and social values. Having established his goals in terms of individual aptitudes and needs, the student is assisted in making plans to achieve these goals. Should he go to college, to work, take an apprenticeship in some trade, enter military service, or consider business or educational training?

Course and subject selection, program change, providing information on colleges, scholarships, college board examinations, vocational information and placement, and planning career clinics are only a few of the many services which are provided for all students.

The effectiveness of the program is dependent upon the degree to which students avail themselves of service provided.

Mr. Joe Freeseman

BUSINESS MANAGER

As a member of the School Management team, the Business Manager's area of responsibility encompasses budgeting and financial planning; purchasing, storing and inventory control; operation and maintenance of building and grounds; operation and maintenance of the school bus fleet; management of the school lunch program; establishing and maintaining an adequate accounting system to provide accurate financial data; procurement and supervision of non-professional personnel. These and many other details are only a part of the support needed to furnish the best in education within the financial limitations of the community.

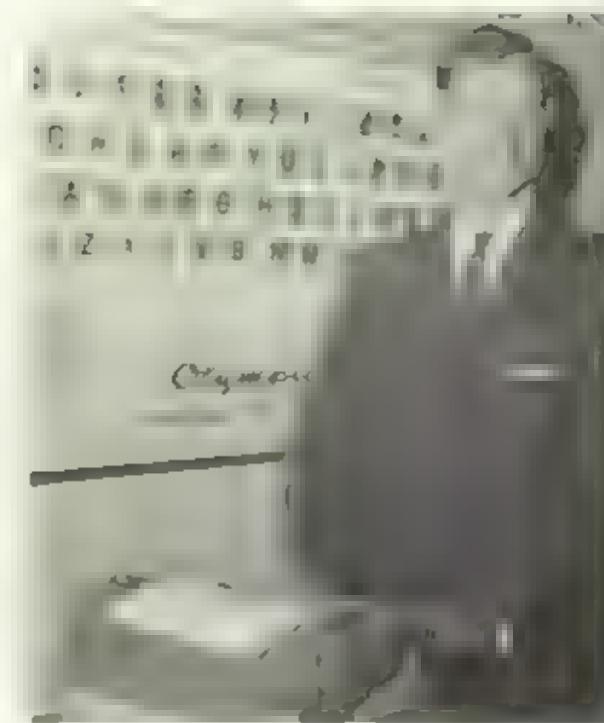

BUSINESS

Practical Business Education Prepares Students For Future Vocations

Mainly the purpose of the Business Education course is to prepare students for a vocation. Learning practical skills, an understanding of business practices, principles, and attitudes, the individual is provided with knowledge for a successful business career.

Beginning in ninth and continuing through twelfth grade, General Business Training, Business Exploratory and Refresher Math, Shorthand, Bookkeeping, Typing, and Office Practice and Machines courses are offered.

Not only are vocational aids offered, but non-vocational skills useful to manage personal business affairs in the competitive business world of today. As a whole, the program is practical and realistic, requiring each student to "learn to earn."

FINE ARTS

Arts Department Caters To The Creative Mind

Endeavoring mainly to broaden the student's experience in music and art and establish a working knowledge of basic ideas and principles, the Fine Arts Department caters to the creative mind. In the junior high classes, elementary knowledge and skills are built upon and reinforced to establish in the individual student a solid basic foundation in tools and media. Later in senior high elective groups the itinerary is designed to further the education of the students in specific areas.

LANGUAGES

English And Foreign Language Departments Stress A Wide Variety Of Meaningful Language Experiences

Basically, the Language Departments, English and foreign, strive to help the students develop in four major areas; reading, writing, speaking and listening, and wide reading. Wide reading and listening help the student to accumulate knowledge that he can use in written and oral expression. Extensive use is made of tapes and recordings so that students can hear the language they are studying used correctly and pattern themselves after it.

SCIENCES

Students Informed Of Continuous Advances In Modern Science

Science in man's life has been greatly increased. Science is playing an expanding role in medicine, agriculture, industry, space, and internal relations. Man must be aware of his environment and his scientific advances.

The science curriculum is constantly being updated and improved so that the science education of man is bettered to keep pace with the continual progression. Garden Spot High School's science curriculum offers basic programs which provide the student with a strong foundation in the sciences of the present-day world.

MATHEMATICS

Knowledge Enables Students To Expand Math When Approaching New Problems

In future years, present mathematical terms will no longer be sufficient. The concepts will basically be the same, but the reasons and means of doing these problems will have been changed. The Mathematics Department hopes to give the pupils the knowledge and understanding to expand the mathematics that they have learned as they approach new problems.

Modern terminology is used by the seventh and eighth grade classes as they study the basic mathematical concepts. Beginning with the ninth grade, a "double-track" program is put into use to help meet the needs of the general and academic students. The depth of which higher mathematics is studied is determined by the ability-level of each student.

SOCIAL STUDIES

Emphasis On Background Provides Students With Insight To Meet World Problems

Social Studies presents a background to an understanding of our modern world by providing a scope of fading civilization, and combining a summary of contemporary world conditions. The combination of these two fields gives the student an understanding of ancient times and ideas which he can use to supplement his daily tasks in the present and the future.

Right now the course is in a period of transition with meetings of representatives from Lancaster County and Temple University to decide on a standard course in history. There will be a revision of the whole curriculum from kindergarten thru twelfth grade with the elimination of some courses and the addition of others. This change will eliminate the duplication of courses.

The Social Studies Department at Garden Spot gives the entire student body a look into history ranging from ancient history to Problems of Democracy.

HOMEMAKING

Girls Prepared For Efficient Home Management

Homemaking education is to help girls contribute to better home, family, and community living. The junior and senior high girls touch upon six areas which make up the homemaking curriculum. These six areas are: personal, family, and community relationship, child care and guidance, family clothing, family health and safe living, food for the family, and housing for the family.

Upon having completed the required homemaking courses the girls will have obtained some background and knowledge in all branches of homemaking. Through all of these branches run the common themes of gracious living, wise management, family finances, human relationship, and guided experiences.

VOCATIONAL AGRICULTURE

Vocational Agriculture Trains Our Nations Future Providers

Vocational Agriculture is a three pronged attempt to fully educate the student. The first deals with the preparation of the students to cope with the various farm-related occupations which require a knowledge of modern farming and for those occupations in which post-high school or college training is necessary. Secondly, efforts are made to provide exploratory opportunities of an educational and vocational nature in agriculture prior to and during enrollment in the vocational-agriculture program. And lastly, to instill in the student a sense of responsibility and mature citizenship by way of urging participation in group activities which tend to encourage an appreciation for rural life.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Fitness Plays Important Role In Gym Department's Curriculum

Physical Education becomes increasingly important in today's complex world of automation, fast pace, and physical inactivity. In facing everyday situations, students need to develop competence to maintain good health, to produce supreme physical fitness, to make correct moral decisions to express themselves emotionally and to work jointly with one another. With its varied activities and challenging situations, physical education encourages the growth of students physically, mentally, socially, and emotionally.

A look into the future of physical education sees a new modified-adapted course which offers room to all students at Garden Spot including the physically handicapped. The curriculum could possibly include Elementary Physical Education with a course of three periods per week.

SPECIAL EDUCATION

Curriculum Is Expanded To Include Occupational Areas

Primarily the purpose of the Special Education Department is to help the student go into his community prepared to function at his own level in personal, social, and vocational areas. Each student is given individualized attention and instructed in the academics as well as human relationships.

One of the vocational phases is the Gift Shop, operated and supplied strictly from the craft classes. The junior high's primary function in this program is to make all items that are to be sold. The students in the senior high are responsible for the production, management, purchasing material, and selling. The profit realized from the sale of the articles is used to sponsor field trips and purchase additional materials.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

Lectures, Field Trips And Projects
Broaden Advanced Students Insight
Into Industrial Fields

Industrial Arts is a study of problems of design, materials, and processes of industry; through the use of drafting technique project construction, tools, and an understanding of industry. Design problems are created and solved by the student through development of his own projects in the fields of wood, metal, plastic leather or another medium used in the department.

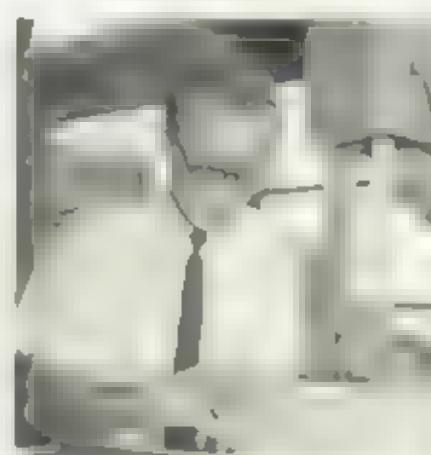

The advanced student in Industrial Arts can choose the course as his major in grades 10, 11, and 12, and his schedule will be arranged so he can spend more periods working on his project per week. The student also gains a new insight into the field of industry through the use of films, lectures, and field trips.

DRIVER EDUCATION

Beginning Drivers Prepared
For Safe And Efficient Driving

Classroom and practice driving are the two phases of the Driver Education course. In the tenth grade, the students begin preparations to learn about the driving of an automobile. Approximately thirty hours of instruction is given in the classroom. At this time pertinent topics relating to urban and rural traffic situations are discussed.

When a student has reached the legal age to drive and has acquired a learner's permit, he has the opportunity to receive instruction from the school's Driver Education Department. The student is then scheduled for ten to fourteen one-half hour lessons. Basic operation of the controls is the beginning of the lessons. The student progresses through different situations to the passing of the driver's examination at the Lancaster State Police Barracks.

READING

Acceleration Program Helps Students Appreciate Better Literature

Reading is designed with seven basic aims for the seventh and eighth graders. The seven aims are as follows: make reading more enjoyable, build necessary background for adequate understanding of concepts relating to ever-expanding environment of students, develop word recognition through the use of phonetic and structural analysis, extend word meanings and understanding, increase reading comprehension through generalizing, making inferences, skimming, outlining, and summarizing, further develop reading as a tool for gaining greater knowledge, and help students develop their reading abilities.

An acceleration program has been designed for students to work in smaller groups discussing great books. From this, the individual student will feel a sense of satisfaction as he learns to appreciate better forms of literature.

LIBRARY

Facilities Present Widening Opportunities For Students And Faculty

Everyone benefits from the many library services. Those seeking reference, an enjoyable novel or short story, or perhaps that last-minute information for a term paper, as well as teachers in need of phonograph records, find themselves rushing to the library.

Nearly seventy student librarians aid Mrs. Betty Weaver and Miss Susan Derr in keeping the library an efficient storehouse of knowledge. Gaining about two thousand books yearly, the library is rapidly expanding. In the near future, the task will be dividing the materials between the present library and the new junior high library.

SCHOOL STAFF

Working Efficiently, Staff Members Perform Duties

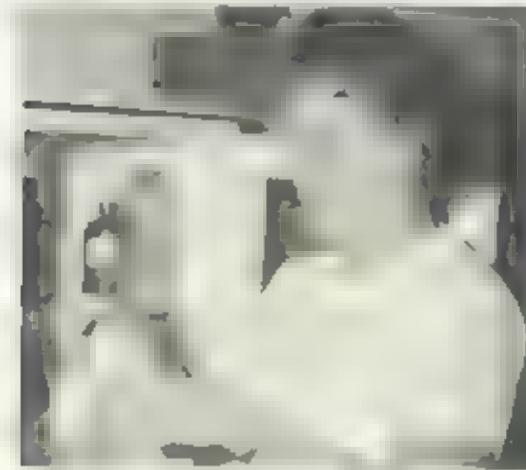

Each member of the school staff helps to create a harmonious school system. While the school nurse, physician, and dentist attend to the student body's health, the cafeteria personnel busily prepare 1400 lunches. Meanwhile, the office staff keeps accurate records and up-to-date files as the custodians repair jammed lockers and faulty devices. These are but a few of the many taken-for-granted services rendered by the school staff.

DAVE BENDER and Ron Dyer, co-captains of Garden Spot's championship soccer team, prize the trophies won at county and interdistrict playoffs.

EVENTS OF THE FALL

TEAM STRATEGY is being discussed by Assistant Coach Arthur Loewen and Coach Robert Weaver.

Dave Bender Receives James J. Neely Trophy For Most Valuable Player In Lancaster County

"These are the best players I ever had," stated Coach Robert Weaver after his booters captured the Lancaster County Soccer Championship. The road appeared rocky for the Spartans at the beginning of the seasonal competition when the team dropped its first league game by a score of 2-1 to McCaskey. The future's picture brightened for the boys when they downed Pequea Valley on the Brave's home field after Bruce Good headed home the only goal of the game with ten seconds left in the final overtime period. This win set the pace for the remainder of the season as the eleven Weavermen triumphed in the eight final league games. They rolled up many impressive scores.

The Varsity eleven had their share of glory this year. The whole team received a berth on some part of the County All-Star Team with co-captains Dave Bender and Ron Dyer heading the six placed on the first team. Dave Bender placed second in league goal standings scoring twelve goals in ten league encounters. The team record enabled them to participate in the playoffs for the District III soccer crown.

RON DYER and his team mates are very determined.

Bob Youndt Scores With 0:46 In The Final Period To Give Garden Spot Interdistrict Soccer Laurels

Garden Spot High School was the scene of pandemonium when the Spartan booters defeated Northeastern on our home field with a score of 2-1. The first goal was driven home by Bill Weaver on a fast break, and Terry Myer assisted by Tom Sweigart scored the winning goal.

The varsity booters traveled to Northeastern High School to meet St. Thomas for their second encounter in play-off competition. The Weavermen faced a rough first half in which the teams appeared equal, however, after half-time the Spartans came onto the field determined to score. Tom Sweigart and Terry Myer tallied one goal each blanking St. Thomas and giving the Spartans a chance for the District III Crown.

The game deciding the District III Crown was played at Franklin and Marshall between our Spartans and the Trojans of Tulpehocken. The Spartans were behind at half-time 0-1 facing a possible defeat. After the half-time break the picture was completely changed. The score was equalized only two minutes and fifteen seconds into the third period when Tom Sweigart rammed home the first goal. Three minutes later, Garden Spot took the lead on a shot by Bruce Good. By the time the third quarter ended, the score was 3-1 when Tom Sweigart passed to Dave Bender who booted the ball into the net. Bender again tallied in the fourth quarter on a lob over the goalie's head to finish the game scoring at 4-1.

Then came the dream, the game the Spartans had waited for the whole season. On November 17, the Weavermen met Lower Merion at West Chester State College's soccer field before 2,000 eager soccer fans. The first quarter of play was even and set the pace for the remainder of the game although Lower Merion came up with two corner kicks. Play in the entire game was hindered by a strong wind, which caused many shots for both teams to sail over or wide of the net. Then in the fourth quarter, with the score at 3-1 in corner kicks, Bob Youndt, left halfback, got the ball at about half-field. The Aces' defense had disappeared. Bob faded around the fullback and angled toward the net where the goalie rushed him. His pass to the right neatly slipped into the right corner of the net with 0:46 remaining in the game. The game ended 1-0 with Garden Spot the new Interdistrict champions.

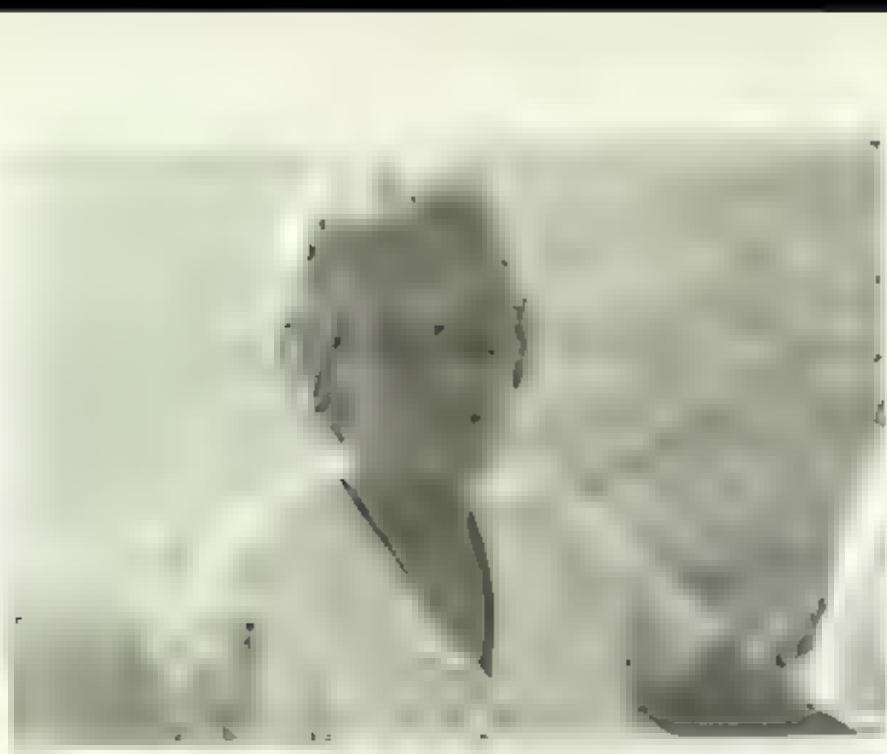

DAVE WOODWARD grabs the ball from a Lampeter-Strasburg scoring offensive.

APTER OUT jumping his opponent to head the ball, Dave Bender returns to the ground.

MARTHA HESS prepares to drive in order to pass the ball to the center of the field.

WITH A gesture of her hand, Mrs. Young points out a mistake made by one of the team members.

Team Maintains Tie For Second Place

With the return of only three starting varsity hockey players, the outlook for the season was dim. After defeating rival Pequea Valley, though, the team's spirits were boosted. The girls encountered an unfortunate defeat when Warwick made a goal in the last ten seconds of the game. The remainder of the season was one to be proud of.

Next year's season should be a promising one with nine of this year's varsity team returning to the squad. Much of this year's success can be contributed to the close friendship and teamwork displayed by the hockey team of 1965.

Team Of Keller And Dean Create "The Valley Of Gold" ... A Smashing Musical

Sixth annual production of the all-school musical was held on November 19 and 20 in the school gym. The play, the joint effort of over sixty students in cast, chorus, and stage crew, entitled "The Valley of Gold" met with great success at both student assemblies, public performances, and on tour.

The story begins a delightful mixture of slapstick comedy and fine dramatic acting. The plot revolves around an old ghost's search for a true and honest soul; and Paw Bloomtown's harebrained scheme to marry off his daughters inexpensively. These two dreams seem to mingle in the personification of Laurie Bloomtown, who later meets and falls in love with Richard Davie, a public relations man from New York City. All these themes are brought together with the usual Keller wit, with story and lyrics, and aided in mood and idea by the superb Dean music.

Mr. William Dean and Mr. David Keller, both members of the faculty at Garden Spot, were assisted by Mr. Russel Yost, stage manager; Mr. David Martin, lighting technician; and Mr. William Reilly, who designed the set which was executed by the stage craft.

Student Government Promotes School Spirit And Service Projects

Through Student Council, the student body can voice their opinions. Each homeroom elects one representative to the council. The homerooms of the senior class are each represented by two members. The council is a type of government, within the school, which passes legislation to help better the school and students.

This year, to accommodate school spirit, the Student Council sponsored busses to the soccer play-off games. This made possible a cheering squad of approximately one thousand fans. For the first time, the council provided a Homecoming Dance for the students of Garden Spot and alumni. It also handles class elections, holds various dances, assembles handbooks, sponsors Bundle Day, and finances outside assemblies given for the enjoyment and education of the students of Garden Spot.

PRESIDENT BILL Heistand and adviser Miss Elizabeth Troxell prepare the business to be discussed in the upcoming meeting.

Philippine Student Adapts Quickly To American Role

Naomi Kee, a student from Maasin, Southern Leyte, Philippine Islands, has completed a year of study at Garden Spot High School under the auspices of the American Field Service.

While attending Garden Spot, "Mimi" as known by her classmates, is living with the V. Lester Schreiber family of New Holland. Under requirements of the American Field Service our school was requested to find a senior girl to serve in the capacity of "big sister." Chosen to fill this role are Mildred Martin and Judi Oster. Introducing Mimi to her new environment, friends, and helping her with school problems are a few of the duties performed by her big sisters.

Upon graduation, Mimi will always remember her year in the United States . . . Garden Spot . . . The Schreiber family . . . fellow seniors . . . athletic events . . . cheerleading . . . Student Council . . . her first snow . . . graduation.

Homecoming Dance—First Social Event Of Year Welcomes Alumni

Romantic atmosphere of the Homecoming Dance was created by glowing blue and gray candles, imaginative decorations, and dreamy tunes provided by Kenny Kaye and the Kayemen. A giant mobile was suspended over the center of the gymnasium becoming the outstanding feature of the decor. Silk and chiffon draped the throne which gave added elegance to the Homecoming Queen and Court. "Hello Alumni", the theme of the dance, was sponsored by the senior high Student Council. It gave former students of Garden Spot a chance to renew old acquaintances.

Six candidates for the title of queen were chosen by our Interdistrict Soccer Championship Team. These candidates, Judi Houck, Jane Musser, Wendy Myers, Janice Shirk, Cindy Wise, and Mary Kay Zimmerman, were voted upon by the students of ninth through twelfth grades. The queen and two runners-up were announced at the dance. Crowning the queen was fulfilled by Mrs. Arthur Loewen and the bouquet of flowers was presented by Mr. Arthur Loewen who was assistant coach of the soccer team.

For faculty, students, and alumni, the Homecoming Dance will become another event to add to their realm of memories.

Cameo Stresses Individuality Through Creative Writing

Garden Spot's literary journal, CAMEO, has only been recently created. It is published once a year through the guidance of Mrs. Isabel Staffieri. It includes writings ranging from an original witty saying to a very serious poem or essay. Any student may enter his composition for the staff's consideration. English teachers also enter works which they feel are worthy of publication.

Receptionists Hope To Establish A First Impression Of Garden Spot

First important function of this organization is to warmly greet all callers. The second is to give them a better impression of our school. Receptionists ask all visitors to sign their name, place of business, and whom they want to see. Then the receptionist directs them to the office or helps in any way they can. The girls, who were selected at the beginning of the year, serve as receptionists during study hall periods.

RECEPTIONIST, BONNIE Bressler, welcomes Mr. Harold McKinney, the school's photographer, as he signs the school register.

Student Librarians Receive Valuable Training In Library Procedures

Student librarians, approximately seventy in number, assist the students in the library. These librarians stamp passes, check out books, card and shelve returned volumes, collect fines, and answer any questions that they may be asked.

This year a Student Librarian Club was formed under the direction of Miss Susan Derr. Officers and class representatives were elected by the members.

In the fall, representatives were chosen to attend the Annual Fall Conference of the Student Library Association of Pennsylvania, Millerville Area. The conference was held at Middletown Area High School. Miss Susan Derr, Adviser, accompanied the eight representatives to the conference.

Seven FFA Members Chosen To Receive State Awards

Garden Spot's rural youth organization, the Future Farmers of America, Grassland Chapter, endeavors to develop to the fullest, qualities of leadership and to create more interest in the intelligent choice of agricultural occupations. Members can participate in activities providing an experience in public speaking, parliamentary procedure, livestock exhibition, and in a varied program of social and athletic activities.

The chapter was honored with the selection of seven members for the Keystone Farmer Award. Judged on leadership and scholarship, these boys represented part of the top two percent of all the farmers in Pennsylvania. This is the largest number of boys ever to be chosen from one school for this award. Glenn Weber, who has been active in FFA for his entire high school career, has been chosen Region II Star Farmer.

The senior group is directed by Mr. Robert Herr, and Mr. Gene Daugherty heads the junior organization.

Future Homemakers Of America Designated To Provide Display For State Farm Show

Future Homemakers of America provides an opportunity for adolescents to learn to work efficiently with others of their own age group to improve their home and family life. It is recognized as a part of the educational experience of homemaking students.

At Garden Spot, the members strive to develop an appreciation of the joys and satisfaction received from homemaking, a creative leadership in the home and community, and a wholesome program of recreation, whether individual or in a group.

This year, Garden Spot's chapter of the Future Homemakers of America has been designated to put on a display at the Pennsylvania Farm Show.

Primary Function Of Girls' Leaders Is Assisting In Gym Classes

Girls' Leaders Club is an organization designated to assist the Physical Education Department. It is governed by the Girls' Athletic Council consisting of two seniors, one junior, one sophomore, and one freshman. The club organizes and heads intramurals and has as some of its duties: taking roll, officiating, timing, scoring, and assisting in physical fitness tests.

ASSISTED BY Debbie Mellinger, Miss Clara Blaker and Miss Paula Grubbs calculate physical fitness percentiles.

LORRAINE YOUNDT and Barbara Longer assist Linda Palsgrove in the bar hang test.

Members Gain Experience In Leadership And Teaching

Garden Spot's Boys' Leaders Club provides for its members an opportunity to develop their leadership and athletic skills in situations of refereeing and teaching. The boys demonstrate their abilities not only at school but in inter-scholastic athletic events, for each member is required to participate in at least one varsity sport.

Boys become eligible for membership in the club at the end of their freshman year. Potential members appear before a board of inquiry. After deliberation, perspective members are voted on by present members and must receive over a three-fourths majority. Initiation begins at the beginning of the following year. The new members are required to have old members sign their egg which they carry during initiation week. The new members must pass some type of initiation requirement before his egg will be signed.

Working Behind The Scenes, TAT Editors And Reporters Create An Informative Paper

Chief purpose of the school newspaper, the TELL-A-TOWER, is to inform student readers about school life including sports, studies, activities, and current trends. Students are also given the opportunity to express their opinions and ideas concerning important issues through the paper's features and editorials.

Under the guidance of Miss Gwen Healey, reporters and editors strive to maintain the first place rating from the Pennsylvania Scholastic Press Association. To achieve this goal, they busily work together to create well planned layout and copy work. As a result, the TELL-A-TOWER staff releases an informative paper, constructed by high standards of journalism.

BEFORE SENDING the newspaper to the printers, Miss Gwen Healey, Adviser, and Kathy Waters, club member, review the paper.

Financial Status Of TAT Is Stabilized Through The Effort Of The Business Staff

Administering the paper's business aspects is the task of the TELL-A-TOWER Business Staff. The staff consists of business, advertising, subscription, and mailing managers, a bookkeeper, staff members, and Adviser, Mr. Edward Allen.

Soliciting ads from the local business firms, the staff gains funds to pay for the paper's publication. Duties of staff members include advertising, and taking and fulfilling orders.

Yearbook Staff Attends Conference At Columbia University

SPARTANUS editorial staff is organized and advised by Mr. Frank Palumbo. Actual planning of this book began last spring, when the co-editors decided upon a theme and planned the book. For the first time, the staff has added color divider pages and wash color to carry the theme more effectively throughout the annual.

During the fall of '65, nine members of the SPARTANUS editorial staff and the business manager attended the twenty-sixth annual Conference and Short Course in Yearbook Production at Columbia University in New York City. Staff members attended classes dealing with various phases of yearbook production. Each member felt it was an invaluable and enlightening experience.

In editing a high school annual, the SPARTANUS staff has spent many hours to assure an accurate account of the 1965-66 school year.

Selling Patrons And Ads Is Main Task Of Business Staff

SPARTANUS Business Staff consists of four managers and nine other members. Those students who express interest in being part of the staff are organized by Mr. Jerald Martin, adviser.

In order to meet the cost of producing the yearbook, the staff sells patrons and ads. The business staff is also responsible for the distribution of the yearbooks. Striving to stay within the bounds of their budget, the editorial staff works with the business staff to make the SPARTANUS a financial success.

Someone whispers, "it's snowing," and we all stand in our seats and marvel as the first flakes of the season drift by the classroom window. The class is quickly called to order and we settle back to our desks, elated at the knowledge that winter is finally here.

So the winter opens, characterized by cold buses, wet feet and icicles. The outdoor activities of the fall are soon buried alive in a silent deluge of snow, and are quickly replaced by the indoor scenes which serve to typify the winter season.

Throughout all this rigorous athletic and social activity, the lifeblood of the school runs in her students who abound in youthful spirit and eager participation characterizing Garden Spot.

Winter grows old and we begin to long for freedom and change. Soon the stone gray clouds will open up to a sunny sky, and warm air will permit us to walk the breezeways without freezing.

WRESTLING CHEERLEADER Peggy Dughi pleads for a pin.

LABOR—

Novelty of the school year has subsided. Realization of grades gives impetus to academic machinery.

ACTIVITY—

Intemperate weather forces activity indoors. Landscapes are cold and bleak; the students' spirit is warm and strong.

TRANSITION—

Winter, work, and worry are interrupted by Christmas holidays and parties.

Cagers Fail To Match Last Year's Record

Basketball, winter's perennial sport, again drew crowds to Garden Spot High School. The dribblers again provided an exciting season, although they did not fare victorious in as many games as the previous season.

Senior cagers, Tom Sweigart, Bill Weaver and Dave Bender added greatly to the scoring and rebounding ability of the Spartans. Juniors, Dave Lowery and Dave Woodward, rounded out the Spartan five and came through with clutch scoring in their first season of league competition.

Hopes appear favorable for the '66-'67 basketball season. Coach Watro will see the return of his two starting juniors and a fleet of others who earned letters for substitution work.

Cheerleaders Present New Cheers And Technique

Whatever the sport may be, Garden Spot's cheerleaders are always there applauding the team toward victory. The girls work hard to boost enthusiasm during pep rallies and games, thus exciting school spirit and team morale.

This year several girls sought to improve and revise outdated cheers. During the summer vacation, they attended a cheerleading clinic at Worlds End, Pennsylvania. Returning with new suggestions, the girls explained their ideas to the squads during the routine practices.

Each separate squad, whether cheering for individuals, or the entire team, relays a rallying spirit to the crowd and team.

Stone And Miller Receive Sectional Wrestling Laurels

Spartan grapplers compiled their best league record of all seasons of wrestling competition. Months of hard practice and controlled diet payed off with victory over five county schools. All boys faced rugged competition in their weight class, for Bob Youndt was the only wrestler able to go through all matches, undefeated until a knee injury forced him to forfeit his last match. Bob also added the most team points to the seasonal high score with a record of FORTY-FIVE POINTS.

Barry Miller and Phil Stone added personal laurels at the Sectional Wrestling Tournament with wins in the 120 and 127 pound weight classes respectively. These wins enabled both Barry and Phil to compete in the District Tournament in which they were both defeated.

Spartanettes Boast Best Record In County

Obtaining the best record in the County made winter a memorable season for the girls' basketball team.

Winning five straight games opened the season perfectly. Unfortunately, during their second meet with Warwick, the team encountered their first defeat. Spirits were down, but not for long; the Spartanettes returned winning the remaining three. A victorious season was ended with a mighty triumph over Donegal.

Hard work, early morning practices, and team spirit kept the team alive, constantly striving for perfection. After all their efforts, the girls were highly rewarded with a completely successful team and a season which they will never forget.

Successful Season For Riflemen But Fail To Regain County Title

Under the able coaching of Mr. Paul Barber, the rifle team has repeated their striking performances of other seasons, scoring high in the league.

The team is comprised of two seniors, two juniors, eight sophomores, and five freshmen. This year marked the return of three girls to the team.

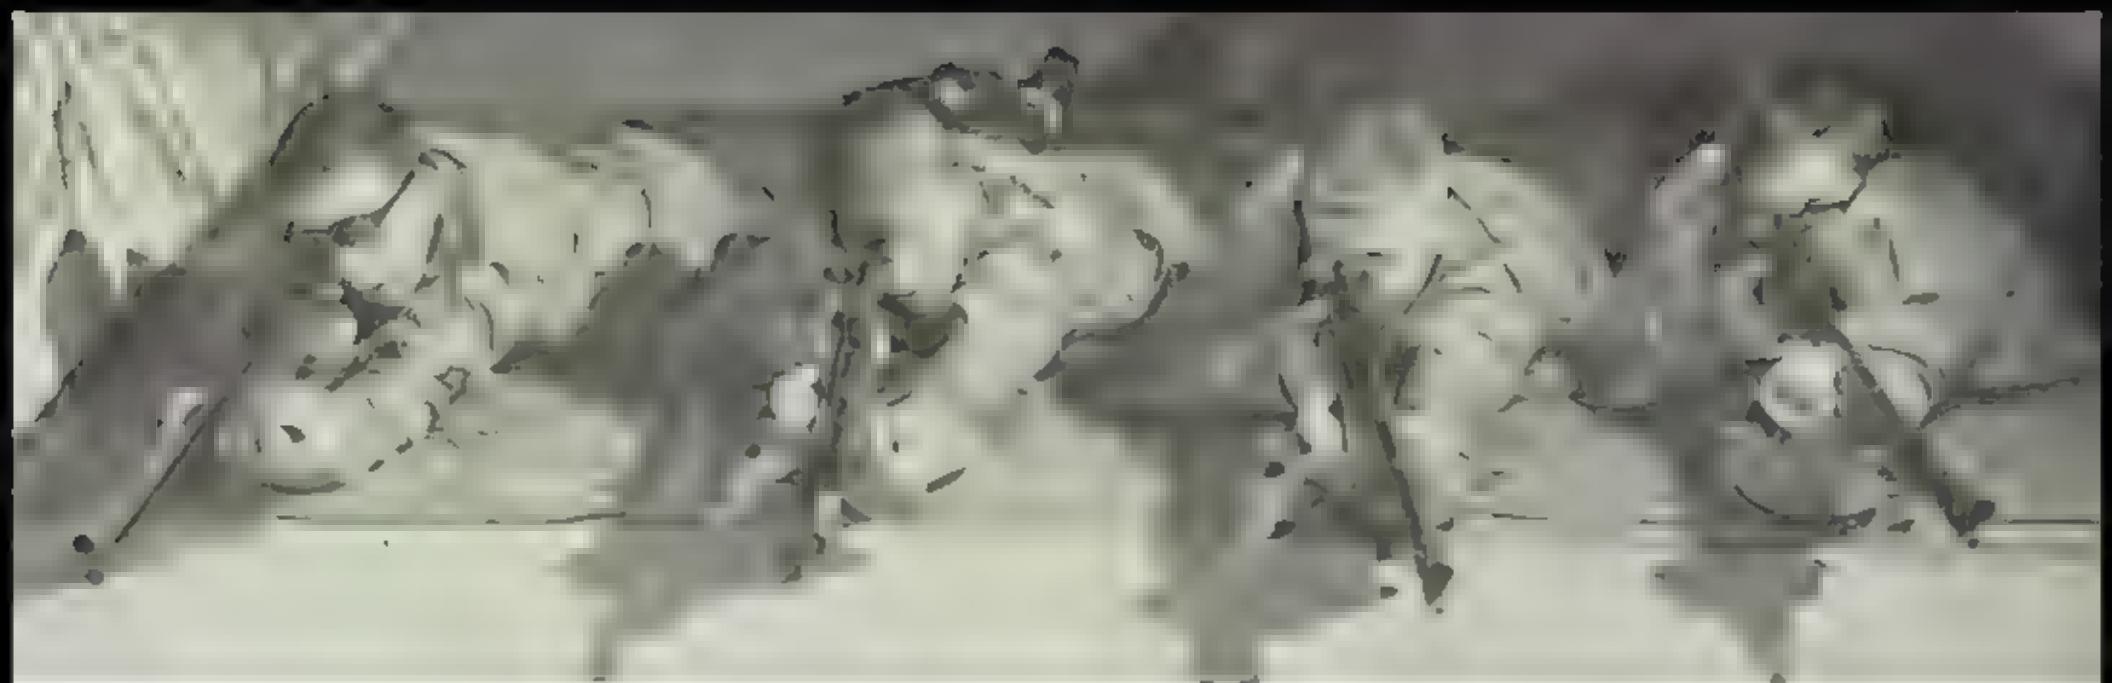

Riflemen remained in contention for the number one position throughout the entire season. Overcome by the marksmanship of Manheim Township, the team had to settle for second place. The members are looking forward to another successful season since all will be returning except two.

DANCING UNDER the spacious Christmas Carousel, students danced to the music of the McCaskey High School Dance Band.

Christmas Dance Induces Holiday Cheer

As students stepped into Garden Spot's gym, they found themselves surrounded by an array of Christmas splendor. Bright red and green streamers hovered above them, forming a high canopy over the Christmas Carousel. The center was filled with an enchanted carousel of jubilant reindeer. Under the spacious canopy, dancers stepped to the music of the McCaskey High School Dance Band. During brief pauses, students delighted in refreshments served in the gym lobby. Through the efforts and planning of the Student Council, both junior and senior high students found the night a festive occasion.

GAZING TOWARD the dance floor, students waited for refreshments.

Instrumental Groups Add Musical Touch To Diversified Events

Musical organizations at Garden Spot provide an environment for students to improve their instrumental music talents. The Concert Band, under the direction of Mr. John Enck, practices the more elementary forms of music in preparation for advancement into the senior high music group. The Symphonic Band, also under his leadership, includes in their schedule a Christmas concert, Television performance and a Spring concert.

Mr. Luke Bowman directs the Orchestra which lends itself to the more classical side of music and humorous orchestral arrangements. They participate in an annual concert and in Commencement exercises. The pep band, a relatively new organization, led by student director Bill Shirk makes its appearances at sports activities, pep rallies and bon fires to boost the school spirit of the crowd.

Varied Choral Groups Give Student Body A Larger Range For Placement

Throughout the year, all choruses busily prepare for Christmas and spring concerts. Directors of the groups are Mrs. Alice Young, Mr. William Dean, and Mr. Earl Pickel. The seventh annual Christmas program "Christmas, Candles and Carols" was highlighted by the honor soloist John Smith, a senior. After a refreshing Christmas vacation, chorus members began the new year by learning and practicing music for the spring concert.

Several members of the senior chorus will also represent Garden Spot in the annual County, District, and Regional Chorus performances. The Concert Choir closes the musical year by singing at the Baccalaureate Service.

As the days pass, we notice a change in our desolate winter. Ice crystals flee from trees as blossoms take their place. Just as the trees, the students of Garden Spot receive a sudden thrust of enthusiasm and ambition. Our interests and desires begin to follow a more vivid path of activity as spring guides us on.

Yes, spring fever becomes extremely contagious and students are lured into a dazzling trance. This lively atmosphere encourages student support in outdoor sports. The participants are filled with determination as spectators cheer them on to victory.

Of course during this intimate season, pupils continue to toil through their school work knowing their efforts are not in vain, but a profit themselves. During this busy atmosphere, time lapses quickly and we discover that spring has come and gone. We leave school with an index table list of another year's benefits.

COACH ARTHUR Loewen eagerly anticipates the results of the record-breaking vault of Dave Bender.

Leadership, Scholarship, And Character Are Components Of An Honor Student

Honor Society is a nationally noted organization. Superior students are nominated by the faculty in eighth grade and again in eleventh grade. In eighth grade they become members of the Junior Honor Society, and in eleventh grade members of the Senior Honor Society. Each student must possess the qualities of leadership, service, citizenship, scholarship, and character to be eligible for membership. In the spring, there is an induction ceremony and a tea for the new members and their parents.

Each year the Honor Societies sponsor a May Day festival with the funds going to the benefit of the school's Americans Abroad Program. The day is started with an assembly and the crowning of a queen to reign over the day's activities. Teachers' services are auctioned off to the students. Following the assembly is a variety show, games, a bake sale, and dance that highlights the gala festival.

OUR TOWN

By

Thornton Wilder

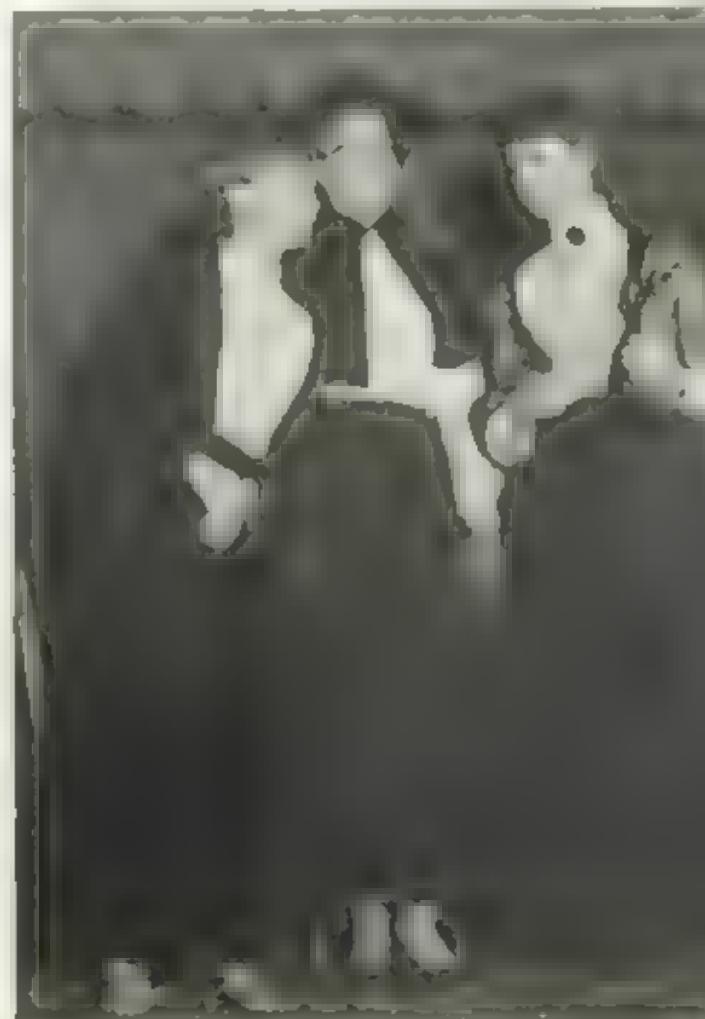

Production Receives Enthusiasm

As house lights dim, the curtain rises, and long weeks of preparation come to an end as the English Department's production of Thornton Wilder's "Our Town" comes to life on the stage.

The action takes place in Grover's Corners, a small New England town, where George struggles in his transition from boyhood to manhood. Throughout the play, ordinary scenes and everyday happenings are given special significance to reinforce the plot.

The overall theme of the play is appreciation of those things which are taken for granted and only appreciated after they are lost. This thought is made clear in the last scene in which George loses his wife.

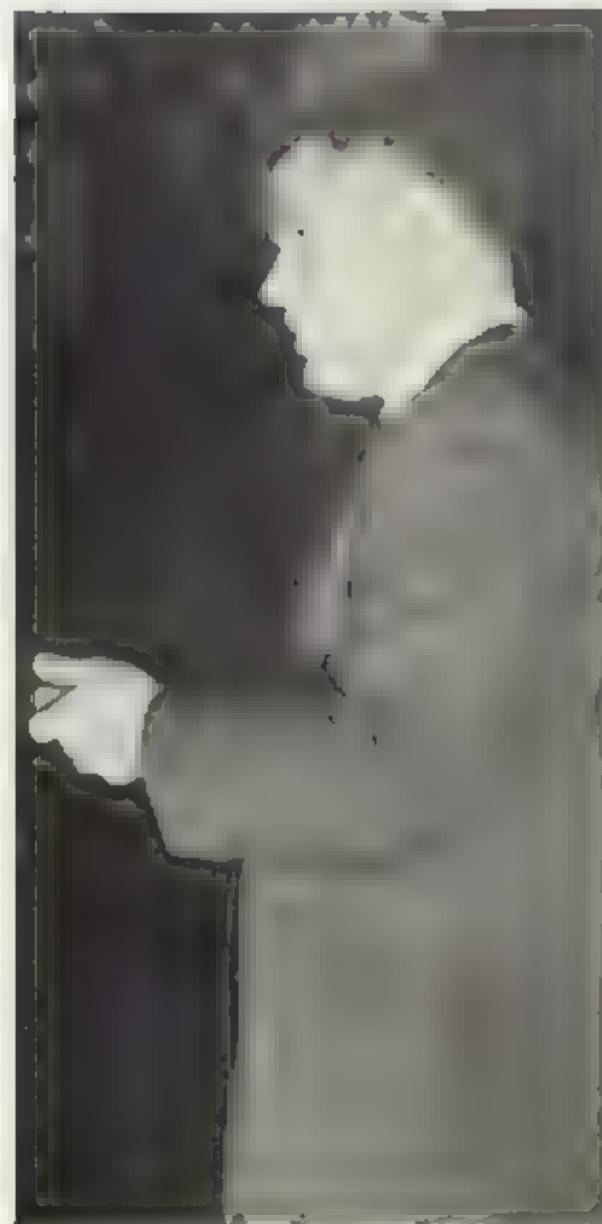

Competently produced and directed by Mr. Dan Jones and assisted technically by Mr. David Martin, was the first successful dramatic production attempted in five years.

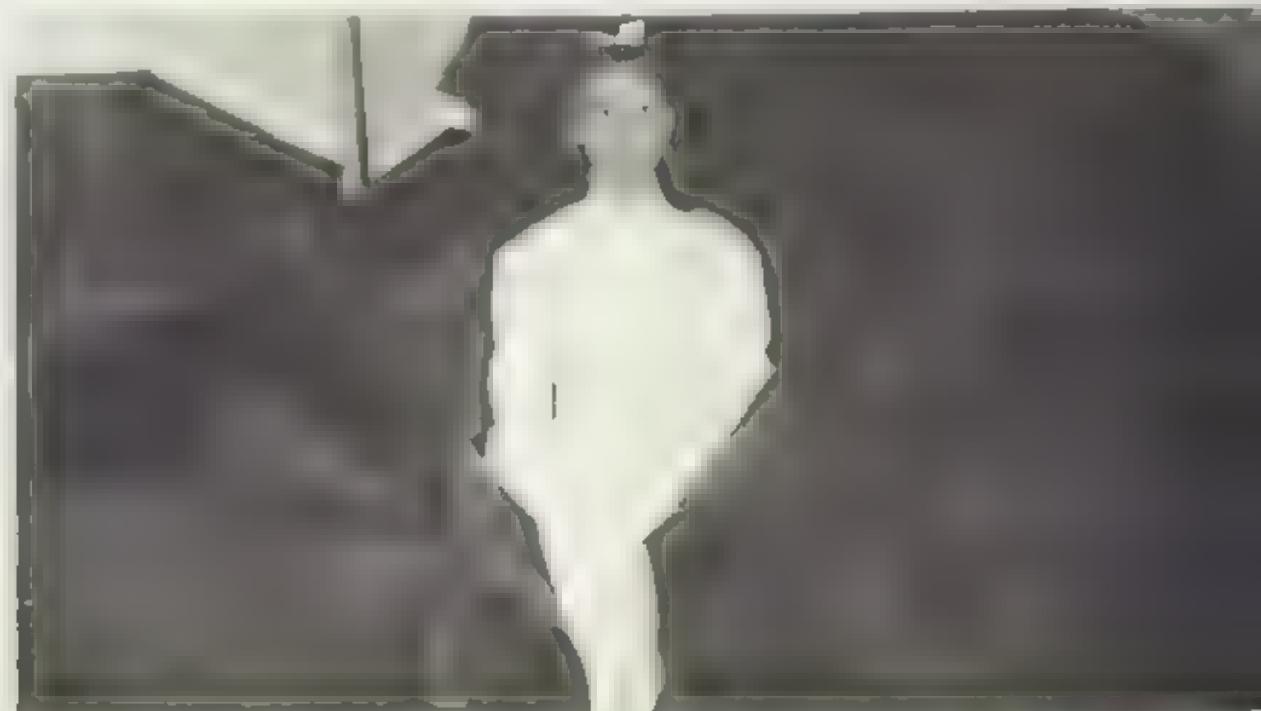

HOLLY MECK lets Barbara Best and Suzanne Nagle in on a bit of choice gossip.

CITIZENS OF Grover's Corners witness the wedding of Lee Weber and Jackie Weidman.

Gymnasts Secure Spotlight.. Perform Artistic Feats For Classmates And Public

Every two years Garden Spot High School presents a gym show in conjunction with the Physical Education Department under the guidance of Miss Clara Blaker, Mrs. Clio Brandau, Miss Paula Grubbs, Mr. Arthur Loewen, Mr. Richard Stockton, and Mr. Robert Weaver. Participating are representative groups from grades seven, nine, and eleven in addition to the athletic clubs from our school. Different types of dancing, tumbling and apparatus, and synchronized calisthenics are included in the program.

BOB TSUDY shows strength and skill in his acrobatic act.

SHARPNESS OF the eye and steady arm are needed as Jim Tshudy aims for the bull's eye.

New Tactics And Persistent Effort Result In 5-5-1 Record For Spartans

Coach Robert Weaver's batmen missed playing .500 ball with a seasonal record of 5 wins, 5 losses, and 1 tie. Hopes were high at the beginning of the season after the team swept two games from Twin Valley and Cocalico. Only three wins were established from the final nine games. The 5-5 and 1 record put the Spartans in third place in the league standings. Menno Eby received berth on the league all star team. Chet Gordon received honorable mention. With the return of ten experienced juniors next year, Mr. Robert Weaver expects a victorious team.

Cindermen Provide, Startling Season And Provide County And District Vaulter

TENSION MOUNTS as a group of milers await the crack of the starting gun.

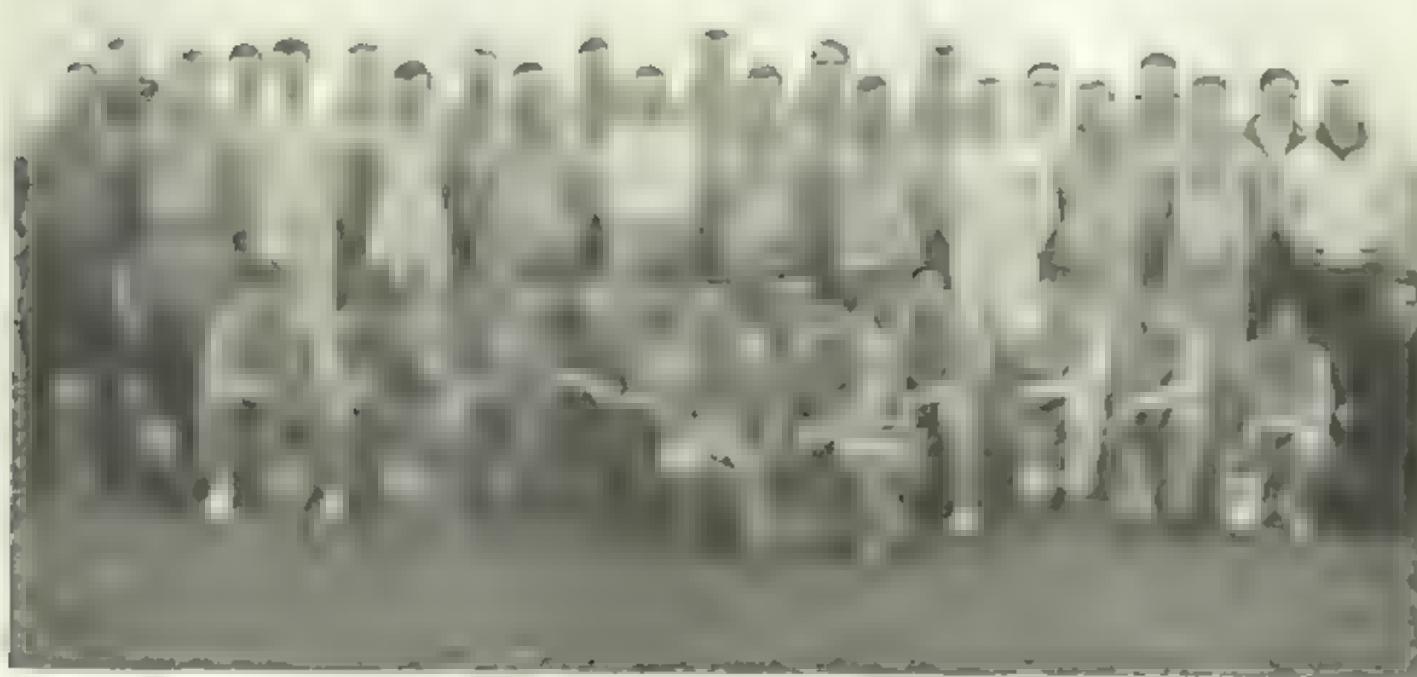

Cindermen provided a surprise season for both the school and their coaches, Mr. James Firestone and Mr. Arthur Loewen, in their first season of league competition with a record of five wins and seven losses. The tri-captains Dave Bender, Ron Dyer, and Mike Futer did much to keep the team's spirit at a high pitch after the defeats, and joined in the celebration after each victory.

The high points of the season were the upset victories over Conestoga Valley and Cocalico in the county league. At the District Three Meet, David Bender set a new record in pole vaulting by clearing the bar at 12' 7 3/4" and captured the first place. Bender then went on to the state tournament at Penn State University and placed sixth.

Hopes appear high for the coming season with the return of two of the tri-captains, David Bender and Ron Dyer, accompanied by many sophomore and junior lettermen of last year.

DAVE BENDER displays the style which carried him to triumphs at both county and district championships.

Girls' Track First Try In League Competition...Inexperience Determining Factor For Losing Season

Garden Spot's girls' track team completed their first competitive season. The team participated in four track meets plus the county meet where they earned fourth place. Due to lack of experience, the girls faced defeat last season, but now have gained valuable experience for future events. With practically the entire team returning this spring, the team is expected to gain a better rank.

"Around The World In 80 Days" Presents Travelogue For The Junior-Senior Reception

Creating an evening filled with enchantment and grandeur, the Junior class presented "Around the World in Eighty Days" for the class of 1965.

Presenting a replica of an observation balloon decorated with multicolored napkins was the outstanding feature of the decor. Cloud formations were formed by the use of China silk. India, Egypt, Greece, Italy, China, and France were represented by silhouettes throughout the gymnasium giving the feeling of travel and excitement. Varied music by the Regals provided the romantic atmosphere related with the Junior-Senior Reception.

For all those who attended, the Prom highlighted the year at Garden Spot. It brought the end of the year closer, but will brighten the memories of the spring of 1965.

First Varsity Club Organized By Letterman

Establishing a spirit of fellowship, cooperation and sportsmanship among all athletes of Garden Spot is the prime objective of the Varsity Club. Organization of this club was handled by Mr. Robert Weaver, in June, 1965. All varsity male or female letter winners, a requirement for membership, were brought together last year to decide whether it was a profitable idea. At the beginning of school, the club reviewed the constitution and elected officers for the present year.

Future functions of the organization include sponsoring a Varsity Club Dance, sports queen, pep rallies, and fund raising activities.

ORGANIZER OF the club, Mr. Robert Weaver, presides over the first club meeting.

REVIEWING THE constitution is the first matter of business discussed during the meeting of the newly organized club.

Return Of Semester Break Is Greeted By Turkish Student

Nahit Mahmut Tatar left Gerze, Turkey, for a year's study in the United States under the auspices of the American Field Service. Nahit, commonly known as "Nick," completed a half year of study at a Columbus, Ohio, high school.

Nick is residing at the home of Mr. Richard Stockton and family in New Holland. Serving as his American brother, Phil Stone helps Nick adjust to the busy schedule of Garden Spot and helps him in his school work.

After graduation he will join other foreign exchange students on a tour of the United States and then fly back to Turkey where he plans to attend college.

THE STOCKTON FAMILY

WITH A few moments to spare, Nick shows his "big brother," Phil Stone, the location of his home town.

RELAXING AFTER a hard day at school, Nick and Rick wrestle on the living room floor

DRESSING IN his cap and gown, Nick prepares for graduation ceremonies

IN RETROSPECT

Graduation is a time of mingled emotions; certainly a time of almost boundless elation, but also a time of quiet sadness. For, although the stifling workload of the twelfth grade has been conquered, we must now depart, and leave the happiness of the school's pleasant social and academic climate. We walk these halls now for the last round, for time goes on, the lower classes transcend, and the senior ritual is completed.

The material which has formed the four walls of our world since our expulsion into the junior high whirl, has been the endless pageant of the seasons. We remember the seasons, and each one, as we pass through it again this last time, brings to mind countless memories of good times, pleasant fellowship, some place, or someone. We remember six crisp autumns, each bringing with it the bittersweet emotion with which we greet each scholastic new year. We remember six stolic winters, each with a varying supply of athletic contests, dances, and sundry other vents for spirit and energy. We remember six fresh springs, each with the boundless joy of liberation. And, so the seasons are and so we reminisce them. Though they may be separated by years, as now we look back, our seasons blend, forming the vast panorama of our generation at Garden Spot.

This is the chronicle of our reflections. In it we relive our favorite moments. In it we see ourselves and what we have done. But a senior's world is not all retrospect; we must now lay aside our youthful fancies and step into the world of adults. No, we will never forget the seasons of our adulthood.

ADVERTISEMENTS

They'll have the answers

Graduating students already know the value of the "right answer." It's been one of the keys to academic success for the past 12 years of their lives.

Coming up is a time for more right answers, beginning with one for the big question that faces all high school seniors, "Where do I go from here?" There'll be other big questions, too, requiring the same kind of careful study.

We have a good idea how most of today's young people will respond to the challenges and decisions that lie ahead. They'll do it with keen judgment and mature responsibility, blended with disciplines and lessons learned in the classroom. That's a combination that will be tough to beat.

So go forth, class of 1966, and start making your marks. We wish you fulfillment of all your ambitions.
